About Marathi Samajshastra Parishad:

The study of Sociology started in the first half of the 20th century in Mumbai University and after that Sociology was taught at the university and college level all over India. Sociology can be mentioned as a very popular subject under the Faculty of Sociology in Maharashtra.

In Maharashtra, Marathi medium was adopted for education at degree and post-graduate level. Therefore, there was a need to provide sound study material with reference to the subject of sociology. Recognizing this need and from a sociological perspective, the need for an independent platform arose at the Maharashtra level for the exchange of ideas between professors, researchers and students. Due to this, in 1981, Dr. M. G. Kulkarni contacted the professors of sociology in various universities and proposed the idea of ? Creating such a platform. This is why the Marathi Society of Sociology Parishad was formed. Efforts were made to get the legal status of the Marathi Sociological Council. According to the Institution Registration Act 1860, the Marathi Sociological Council received the registration certificate and dt. on 27/06/1983, a certificate was obtained under the Bombay Public Trustee Act, 1950.

MG Kulkarni as the first president of Marathi Sociology Council, Dr. VV Deshpande as the secretary of the council, Dr. Sudha Kaldate as the treasurer and Dr. P. L. Bhandarkar, Dr. Vilas Sangwe, Dr. Y.B. as the executive members. Damle, Dr. Dharendra Narayan, Dr. Valunjar, Dr. Shailja Joshi were selected.
